Summary of the workshop in Parsberg, Bavaria, Germany 14.10. – 20.10.2012

Participants:

Gymnasium Parsberg, Parsberg, Germany:

Judith Lochbihler, Stefan Ziegler, Nadja Renner, Frank Lochbihler, Maren Köhn et al.

I. A. Zanon, Udine, Italia:Anna Rita Colella, Sabrina Nonini, Milvia Morocutti

Kastellin Lukio, Oulu, Finland: Petri Jokiranta, Sakari Häkkinen

U. Pihl vgs., Bergen, Norway: Stine Johannesen, Sabine Rolka

Objectives:

1. Finalize flyer
2. Finalize logo competition
3. Finalize press analysis grid
4. Finalize guidelines for essay competition
5. Make survey on migration
6. Decide on a username and password for the questionnaire
7. Receive online poll link for logo competition
8. Be invited to join a google-group by Anna Rita
9. Be introduced to the project's homepage by Anna Rita
10. Be introduced to the German school system at Gymnasium level
11. Attend a number of classes (English, French, informatics, Spanish, German)
12. Be introduced to migration policy in the local community by mayor of Parsberg
13. Visit the national authorities on migration and refugees (Bundesamt für Migration und Flüchtlinge) in Nuremberg
14. Revise schedule for various activities
15. New partners
16. Comenius Corners
17. Meeting the local press
18. Exchanging photos and audiofiles for DVD on workshop

Results:

Ad 1) Flyer will be finalized in week 45 due to changes in connection with our new partner Spain.

Furthermore, the best logo is to be integrated into the flyer. The vote for the best logo will take place in Norway in week 43 and in Finland in week 44. The slogan for the logo is: Many cultures – one Europe. Young People On Their Way. Deadline for flyer: week 45.

Ad 2) see above.

Ad 3) The press analysis grid was finalized during the workshop in Parsberg on Tuesday 16 Oct 2012.

Ad 4) The guidelines for the essay competition were finalized during workshop in Parsberg on Tuesday 16 Oct 2012.

Ad 5) The work on the survey was done on Wednesday 17 Oct. and Friday 19 Oct. Being comprehensive, two more questions remained to be added. This work and a final revision of the draft will take place in week 43. Anna Rita will transform the survey into an online survey.

Ad 6) Username for survey: Comenius password: myours Ad 7) Anna Rita sent a poll link to all participants. The software polldaddy was used. See ad 1)

Ad 8) Anna Rita demonstrated how google groups works and invited us to participate. (Friday 19 Oct 2012)

Ad 9) Anna Rita introduced the project participants to the project website (Friday 19 Oct 2012)

Ad 10) The participants of the Comenius teacher workshop were introduced to the Bavarian school system and recent reforms by Gerhard Brandl on Monday 15 Oct 2012.

Ad 11) The guest teachers attended altogether 3 lessons on English, Spanish, German, French and computer science (informatics) respectively.

Ad 12) The host and guest teachers visited the castle of Parsberg and were introduced to some aspects of local integration policy by the mayor on Monday 15 Oct 2012. The community comprises ca. 7000 inhabitants, whereof 600 Turkish immigrants. There is little fluctuation from vocational to academic schooling.

Ad 13) Visit to the national authorities on migration and refugees in Nueremberg on Thursday 18 Oct 2012. (Bundesamt für Migration und Flüchtlinge)Two talks by Mr. Lauterbach and Mr. Andreas Müller. The first presented the assignments of the institution, the latter introduced the participants to current migration policy in Germany.

Ad 14) see revised schedule attached. Flyer will be finalized in the next two weeks. Deadline: week 45.

Ad 15) I.E.S. Turgalium, Trujillo, Spain, has been granted a place in the project by its national agency and will join us from 15 Oct 2012 on our activities under their coordinator Pilar Dominguez Galán ad 16) Participants were reminded to follow the example of the host school in Parsberg and create their Comenius Corners within week 45.

ad 17) A newspaper article about the project was published in the Neumarkter Tageblatt on Tuesday 16 Oct 2012 following a meeting with the journalist and the local mayor Mr. Bauer on Monday afternoon 15 Oct 2012. http://www.mittelbayerische.de/region/neumarkt/artikel/europaeische-lehrer-in-parsberg/840232/europaeische-lehrer-in-parsberg.html ad 18) Among the post-workshop assignments of the participants is the sharing of material (photos and audiofiles) via google docs for the DVD on the workshop and for the project website which Anna Rita presented at the workshop.

Sabine Rolka

Coordinator

Bergen, 22 Oct 2012